Rights

FLOORCO Fully acknowledges and upholds all consumer rights as outlined in the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 (CGA). The full terms and conditions of our warranties are detailed in this booklet. Certain warranties provided herein are additional to the rights you are entitled to under general law, including the CGA, and do not affect your existing legal protections. Nothing in these terms is intended to exclude or contract out of the provisions of the CGA. Furthermore, no part of these warranties limits or restricts any other statutory rights or remedies available to you. Please note that when flooring products are purchased for business purposes, the CGA does not apply.

1. Structural Warranties

This is a common type of warranty for laminate flooring, which is a guaranty for flooring size, milling, construction content within factory standards. Warrant these laminate flooring products in their original manufactured conditions to be free from defects in material and workmanship.

2. Warranty period

2.1. The warranty applies to laminate flooring. The warranty period runs from the date of purchase of the Product and amounts to:

Product Name	Residential Areas	Commercial Areas
Krono 12mm	30 years	1 years
Binylpro	30 years	1 years
Krono 10mm	25 years	1 years
Krono 8mm	20 years	1 years
Berryalloc	20 years	-
Stepcasa	15 years	-
8mil	10 years	-

2.2 The Guarantor confirms that its products meet the requirements of the technical standards for laminate flooring and are suitable for use for their intended purpose.

3. Warranty terms and conditions

The customer is responsible for ensuring that the installation site is properly prepared according to FLOORCO's guidelines. Any issues arising from failure to meet these preparation requirements will void the warranty. FLOORCO is not responsible for damages resulting from improper maintenance or unauthorized modifications.

3.1. This warranty is only valid if the Purchaser notifies the Guarantor of the alleged defect before the warranty period expires.

3.2. In order for the Product to be covered by the warranty, it is necessary to follow the rules and recommendations concerning storage, installation, care and operation of the Product.

3.3. The basis to exercise the rights provided for in this warranty is the proof of purchase of the Product.

3.4. It is recommended that the Product is installed by qualified professionals, who have the appropriate equipment and parquet laying knowledge.

3.5. This warranty applies exclusively to the original Purchaser and does not exclude or limit any rights that consumers may have under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 (CGA). For business purchases the CGA does not apply and commercial warranties are limited as specified.

For products purchased for business purposes, the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 does not apply. This warranty for commercial use is limited to 1-5 years depending on the product.

3.6. The Purchaser undertakes to follow the installation, care and maintenance instructions for laminate flooring.

3.7. The Purchaser and the Installer are liable for inspecting the Product prior to its installation in accordance with the industry guidelines, in particular for checking: the type of finish, type of collections and dimensions in relation to the purchase order and for checking for any visible defects. The Guarantor shall not be liable in case of installation of the Product with visible defects or the Product inconsistent with the Purchaser's purchase order.

4. Notice

4.1. These warranties, which begin from the date of purchase, apply to products used in dry residential applications.

4.2. This warranty is valid only in New Zealand and applies solely to the original retail purchaser. For commercial purposes, the warranty is non-transferable and applies only to the initial purchaser.

4.3. Laminate flooring is not a natural product and will expand and contract during seasonal and temperature changes. This warranty does not cover normal expansion or contraction, but your rights under the Consumer Guarantees Act 1993 are not affected.

4.4. Failure to follow the manufacturer's maintenance and installation instructions may void the warranty. However, this does not affect your statutory rights under New Zealand law.

4.5. Generally, laminate flooring warranties are only valid for the manufacturer's defects, which means that if you damage your floor during installation or maintenance and it becomes apparent that you did something against the manufacturer's guidelines, then you will not be covered.

4.6. the Goods must be acclimatized on the site where they are to be installed, prior to their installation, as per the manufacturer's recommendations. Failure to do so can void any warranty provided to the Client.

4.7. You have chosen a Spc flooring. This card provides information on the terms and conditions of warranty for the floorboard.

4.8. warranties to be valid only after full payment of the purchase. This may include multiple purchases of a particular product for one house.
